THE SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION

SENTENCE FOR THE DAY:

What shall I return to the Lord for all his bounty to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord, I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Psalm 116.12–14

HYMNS: 7.30 TIS: 508, 745, 650, 142.

THE COLLECT FOR THE DAY:

O God, you have made heaven and earth and all that is good: help us to delight in simple things and to rejoice always in the richness of your bounty; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

1ST READING: JEREMIAH 29. 1,4-7

PETER JOHNSTON BRIAN ROY

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

PSALM 66:1-11. (said alternately between reader and congregation)

1. Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth;
- 2. sing the glory of his name; give to him glorious praise.
3. Say to God, 'How awesome are your deeds! Because of your great power, your enemies cringe before you.'
- 4. All the earth worships you; they sing praises to you, sing praises to your name.'

5. Come and see what God has done: he is awesome in his deeds among mortals.

6. He turned the sea into dry land; they passed through the river on foot. There we rejoiced in him,

7. who rules by his might for ever, whose eyes keep watch on the nations—let the rebellious not exalt themselves.

8. Bless our God, O peoples, let the sound of his praise be heard,

9. who has kept us among the living, and has not let our feet slip.

10. For you, O God, have tested us; you have tried us as silver is tried.

11. You brought us into the net; you laid burdens on our backs;

2ND READING: 2 TIMOTHY 2. 8-15

SUSAN ROWE THERESE REIN

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself. Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

GOSPEL: LUKE 17. 11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

Sunday 1st December 2019 Craft Fair Information for Stall holders

If you are interested in booking one of the Craft stalls at the St John Christmas Fair the details are below

- ◆ Sunday 1st December 2019
- ◆ Set up 12-2pm (2 hours)
- ◆ Selling period (2-6pm)
- ◆ Total table hire period is between 12-6pm

Options - There are 3 options with different prices for table hire. The most common is the $50 table

Inside hall Rectangle table	(Table supplied 180cm x 77cm) $ 50
Outside hall / side of church / some Oxford street exposure	(Bring your own table) $75
Outside hall / Front of church / Full Oxford street exposure (Bring your own table & gazebo maximum size 3mx3m)	$120

We want to make this a really Christmassy market not only by focusing on the goods on sale but with surrounding decorations so each table will be pre-decorated. Stallholders are actively encouraged to embrace the Christmas theme.

We are aiming to have a wide variety of crafts on sale so we attract the most people and make it profitable for our stall holders

We want the Stall holders to sell Christmas themed items (Items that would be good for presents, Stock which has Christmas colours / decorations to be most prominent). For some of your stock this could be as simple as adding Christmas ribbons.

For others it will be choosing the stock with colours that reflect Christmas.

If you want to book a table then please Email Jacqueline.chapman@icloud.com. You can also find details of the booking form and payment options on our website (stjohnsbulimba.org) under the About tab.

IN MEMORY, OCTOBER 13- OCTOBER 19

MARION COOMBS, 2018; JOAN KERR, 2013.

Prayer for our New Rector

Bountiful God, give to this parish a faithful pastor who will faithfully speak your word and minister your sacraments; an encourager who will equip your people for ministry and enable us to fulfil our calling.

Give to those who will choose, wisdom, discernment and patience, and to us give warm and generous hearts, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

SOCIAL CLUB—GIN APPRECIATION EVENING

Our next Social Club event will be our Gin Appreciation evening on Friday 18th October, at 7.30 pm in the Maheno Room. Tickets will be on sale shortly and will be $10 each. See Ann at the 7.30 service and Dianne or Sarah at the 9.00am service.

As last year, we ask you to bring a bottle of your own favourite gin and we will provide mixers, garnishes and ice, and some snacks and nibbles. Peter Johnston, who is a master of spirit appreciation and a fount of knowledge, will talk to us about the characteristics, history and mysteries of gin. Last year we had a very entertaining evening and we will have as much fun this time. This is a great chance to taste many different gins.

SAMARITAN'S PURSE, OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

Many of you faithfully pack a shoebox for children overseas as part of Operation Christmas Child. Shoeboxes are collected in October, and Samaritan's Purse co-ordinates their delivery at Christmas to children in developing countries who would otherwise not hear the good news of Jesus Christ.

We are collecting shoeboxes, and items to go in them, at the back of the church to take to collections centre. If you cannot fill a box please donate suitable items to go in a box. Suitable things to go in a box are something to wear, something to love (soft toy etc), something for school (pencil case with pencils, crayons, sharpener etc), a toy or game to play with; hygiene items such as toothbrushes and comb, and something special (stickers, sunglasses, hair clips). Please do not include anything war or violence related, any food items such as sweets, anything breakable or anything which might leak such as toothpaste. Please go to the website to register and pay for your box delivery ($10 per box) and to print labels for boy/girl and age group.

Pew Reflections from Anglican Board of Missions

Sunday 13 October 2019– Pentecost 18

Jeremiah 29.1, 4-7; Psalm 66.1-11; 2 Timothy 2.(1-7) 8-15; Luke 17.11-19

The Samaritan leper was the only one of the ten whom Jesus healed to give him thanks for being restored to full health. Let our prayer each day this week be one of thanks for all God has done for us in our lives.

Give thanks for everything that Jesus has done for you from your childhood until now.

Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of South East Asia.

WHAT WE DO

Knitting Circle:

The knitting circle meets once a month in the Maheno room, knitting squares which are then joined and made into rugs, beanies, and crocheting tea towels. Anyone wishing to join this lovely group of ladies and do some knitting or crocheting or anyone wanting to learn to knit or crochet is very welcome to come along; the next one is on Wednesday 16th October, at 9.30am. A delicious morning tea is served.

19 rugs and 1 shawl were recently donated to the Oncology Unit of the Mater Hospital.

St. John's Guild:

A big thank you to our Guild for donating the money to purchase 2 new linen altar cloths; the cost of which was $950. The Guild raise money from their hoy mornings and from catering for Funerals and for the Graduate Clergy days. Their donation means we don't have to pay for them out of Parish Funds.

Cake Stall: (A major fundraiser for the Parish):

Next stall is on Sunday 27th October. The people manning the stall have noticed that jams, slices and small cakes sell well. Thanks to those who faithfully bring donations of cakes, or who help to run the stall.

Mah-jong Group:

The Mah-jong Group meets Thursday morning from 9.30am—12.30pm in the Hall or Church. If you can play mah-jong, or would like to learn, please join us. Tea and coffee is supplied.

Little Children's Church:

Little Children's Church happens each Sunday in term-time, during the 9:00am service. We have stories and activities for children aged 3 years to Year 2, and younger children are also very welcome to attend with a parent. If you are visiting or here for the first time, your children are very welcome to join us.

Teen Church:

Teen Church is an exciting youth programme offered during School term time at St John's. Each term the teens are invited to participate in 3 sessions exploring the Bible and their faith as well as 'In Service' services at the 9am Family service. They engage in ministry tasks and liturgical roles in the 'In Service' services which encourage their growth as Anglicans serving the community. Occasional group outings and fundraising events also form part of the Teen Church programme. Contact Caroline Daunton via the Parish Office if your teenager is interested in joining this small and friendly group.

WELCOME!

Thank you for joining us in our worship today.

We are happy to join with you in fellowship. If you are here for the first time, or would like to be more involved in our parish please make yourself known to one of the welcomers, or clergy.

You can also complete one of the green cards on the table near the main door, to give us your contact details if you would like a call, or to be on our parish contact list.

You can put the card in the collection plate or hand it to a welcomer.
We hope you will join us for coffee after the service.

The green cards can also be used for updating your contact details if you are already a part of our parish.

Don't forget to register your vehicle to be exempt as a Parishioner to park in the car park or you will receive a fine.
