

GOODIES FOR GOODNA

Goodna Parish has updated what they need to best support their local community, so please see if you can donate some of the following items:

Shampoo, deodorant, dishwashing detergent, toilet paper, tissues, kids snacks, UHT milk, or money to purchase eggs on the day the goods are delivered to Goodna. Please do not donate the eggs themselves as donations are delivered monthly.

KNITTING CIRCLE

The Knitting Circle were busy this month! Check out what they have lovingly made! 26

beanies made for premature babies at the Mater Hospital, 7 rugs, and 10 seafarers beanies. The next gathering is Sept 20th in the Maheno Room from 9:30am. All are welcome to come along.

Those of us who don't know how to knit or crochet can come along for a chat, or even better, learn a new craft! Wouldn't that be grand! See you there!

CHILD PROTECTION OBLIGATIONS OF THIS PARISH

This Procedure sets out what Church workers must do when they receive information concerning child sexual abuse and obligations on parishioners:

Parishioners need to report allegations or information received in relation to child sexual abuse, whether such abuse is historical or current, to the parish 'Safeguarders'.

They are Tony Rigby and Lisa Hooper. Their contact details are on the posters here in the church and the Maheno Room. If in doubt, discuss with them and we'll contact the Office of Professional Standards. It is mandatory that, as soon as reasonably practicable, a church worker (clergy, wardens, parish councillors and volunteers) must report all allegations or information received concerning child sexual abuse to the Diocesan *Office of Professional Standards and to the local police or Policelink on 131 444.

Failure to report is a misdemeanor under the Criminal Code and can carry a maximum penalty of 3 years imprisonment.

MY ROMANS 12:1-2 PRAYER - ED OSTROM

O Lord as an act of worship and praise
my voice of acclamation to You I raise,
I sacrifice all and give myself to You desiring to honor You in all that I do.

Lord a living sacrifice I would be surrendering here my all so full and free,
On the altar myself I willingly lay
Your committed servant to be on life's long pathway.

Lord Jesus help me not allow I pray myself to be squeezed in the world's mold today,
Help me not conform to the dark ways of sin
Lord Jesus cleanse and make me clean, deep within.

Come O Lord transform me I humbly pray
Your faithful sanctified servant be today,
Come Loving Lord Jesus, renew my frail mind
in You today sweet tranquility may I find.

READINGS AND PRAYERS FOR THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SENTENCE FOR THE DAY:

Jesus said to them, 'Who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered,
'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.'
Matthew 16.15-16

THE COLLECT FOR THE DAY:

O God, fount of all wisdom, in the humble witness of the apostle Peter you have shown the foundation of our faith: give us the light of your Spirit, that, recognising in Jesus of Nazareth the Son of the living God, we may be living stones for the building up of your holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. He said to his people, 'Look, the Israelite people are more numerous and more powerful than we. Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase and, in the event of war, join our enemies and fight against us and escape from the land.' Therefore they set taskmasters over them to oppress them with forced labour. They built supply cities, Pithom and Rameses, for Pharaoh. But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread, so that the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites. The Egyptians became ruthless in imposing tasks on the Israelites, and made their lives bitter with hard service in mortar and brick and in every kind of field labour. They were ruthless in all the tasks that they imposed on them. The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, 'When you act as midwives to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birthstool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, she shall live.' But the midwives feared God; they did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but they let the boys live. So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, 'Why have you done this, and allowed the boys to live?' The midwives said to Pharaoh, 'Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them.' So God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and became very strong. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, 'Every boy that is born to the Hebrews you shall throw into the Nile, but you shall let every girl live.' Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him for three months. When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river. His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him. The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him. 'This must be one of the Hebrews' children,' she said. Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, 'Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?' Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Yes.' So the girl went and called the child's mother. Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.' So the woman took the child and nursed it. When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, 'because', she said, 'I drew him out of the water.'

Parish Prayers

PSALM 124.

1. If the Lord had not been on our side, now may Israel say:
if the Lord had not been on our side, when our enemies rose against us,
- 2. Then they would have swallowed us alive:
when their anger was kindled against us.
3. Then the waters would have overwhelmed us, and the torrent gone over us:
the raging waters would have gone clean over us.
- 4. But praised be the Lord:
who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.
5. We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler:
the snare is broken, and we have gone free.
- 6. Our help is in the name of the Lord:
who has made heaven and earth.

FELICITY SCOTT SWANSON FAMILY

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgement, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 16.13–20

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.' Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Eternal God, shepherd and guide, in your mercy give your Church in this Diocese a shepherd after your own heart, who will walk in your ways, and with loving care watch over your people. Give us a leader of vision and a teacher of your truth. May your Church be built up and your name glorified; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer for our New Rector

Bountiful God, give to this parish a faithful pastor who will faithfully speak your word and minister your sacraments; an encourager who will equip your people for ministry and enable us to fulfil our calling. Give to those who will choose, wisdom, discernment and patience, and to us give warm and generous hearts, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

BIBLE 360

After the success of our Lenten Study where we explored what it means for us to be Anglicans in our context in Brisbane Diocese following the “Anglican Identity” course, our next growth opportunity will be:

“Bible360: Introduction to the Bible”

Led by Jonathan Sargent, Director of Lay Education for ACSQ.

A one-day (9-3.30pm) introduction to the Bible
for people of all ages and backgrounds.

The seminar provides:

An opportunity to engage with others.

An understanding of the history of the Bible.

The basic information needed to read the Bible with confidence.

A brief overview of the Old Testament and New Testament.

Practical tips on choosing a Bible and other resources.

Help to get started with a personal Bible reading plan.
