THE HARVEST IS PLENTIFUL

The Word of The Lord has been planted as seed,
The Lord of the harvest is bringing in the harvest,
His voice hearkens to you and me "Can I send you?"
The harvest is plentiful It's labourers I need.

Will we gladly respond "Here I am Lord send me."
Or will we look around and say "Please Lord send another,"
Will we boldly go and proclaim "One way to God there is no other."
For it was for all the lost that Jesus died, can't you see?

Lord cleanse deep within our hearts, start with mine,
Rid me of all my foolish ways, make me over anew,
Oh Lord our God, You must increase, we must decrease,
From now on let our foolish striving in fleshly ways cease.

So Lord when we hear your cry "Will you go for me?"
Let us gladly respond "Here I am Lord send me."
"Anoint us and commission us Lord for the work we must do,
That the people out there will know that you love them too!"

SENTENCE FOR THE DAY.

The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; ask therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.
Luke 10.2

THE COLLECT FOR THE DAY:

God of the covenant, in our baptism you called us to proclaim the coming of your kingdom: give us courage, as you gave it to the apostles, that we may faithfully witness to your love and peace in every circumstance of life; in the name of Jesus Christ our Redeemer, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

OLD TESTAMENT READING: 2 KINGS 5.1-14

NEW TESTAMENT READING: Galatians 6.7-18 June Parker Kelly-Ann Sparks

Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow. If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit. So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith.

See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand! It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised—only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh.

May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything! As for those who will follow this rule—peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. From now on, let no one make trouble for me; for I carry the marks of Jesus branded on my body. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

PSALM 30:

1. I will exalt you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up from the depths:
and have not suffered my foes to triumph over me.

2. O Lord my God, I cried to you:
and you have made me whole.

3. You brought me back, O Lord, from the land of silence:
you saved my life from among those that go down to the Pit.

4. Sing praises to the Lord, all you his faithful ones:
and give thanks to his holy name.

5. For if in his anger is havoc, in his good favour is life:
heaviness may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.

6. In my prosperity I said 'I shall never be moved':
your goodness, O Lord, has set me on so firm a hill.'

Continued...

7. Then you hid your face from me:
and I was greatly dismayed.

8. I cried to you, O God:
and made my petition humbly to my Lord.

9. 'What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit:
can the dust give you thanks, or declare your faithfulness?

10. 'Hear, O Lord, and be merciful:
O Lord, be my helper.'

11. You have turned my lamentation into dancing:
you have put off my sackcloth and girded me with joy,

12. That my heart may sing your praise and never be silent:
O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

Gospel: Luke 10.1-12, 10.17-24

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.

Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near." I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'

At that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, 'I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.'

Then turning to the disciples, Jesus said to them privately, 'Blessed are the eyes that see what you see! For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it.'

A Prayer for School Holidays.

God of all, we thank You for holiday breaks. We appreciate teachers, who have worked so hard in preparing children and young adults into achieving their life aspirations and goals over the term. We pray that You will give families the guidance on how to look after their child/children during this period. Let this be a special time of bonding and reflection, as well as a time of appreciating one another, this we ask, Amen.
