Bushcare; from Andrea Findlay

The church's Season of Creation is coming-up in September-October. It's all about praying and caring for God's creation.

Would you like to join me at a local bushcare group? It's a great way to care for nature, close to home. It involves planting, weeding and other practical tasks, together with a local community group.

Sat 10 Sep and Sat 8 Oct. 7:30am-10:30am (come for the whole time or just an hour or two)

Enter via Latina St, Seven Hills (walk in until you find the shed). Wear closed-in shoes and a hat.

SEASON OF CREATION—OCEAN SUNDAY

SENTENCE FOR THE DAY.

“Let the sea roar and all that fills it!” Ps. 96.11

THE COLLECT FOR THE DAY: God, our Creator, as we reflect on the mysteries of the ocean depths, we celebrate the wondrous design of the seas that surround us. Help us to discern how we have polluted our oceans and to empathise with the groaning of creation beneath us. Teach us to sense the presence of God in the tides and currents of the surging seas. Teach us to care for the oceans and all our waterways. In the name of the Wisdom of God, the creative force that designs and governs all creation. Amen.

FIRST READING: Job 38:1-18 Allan Thomson Charmaine Swanson
Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind: ‘Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me. ‘Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy? ‘Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb?—when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band, and prescribed bounds for it, and set bars and doors, and said, “Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped?” ‘Have you commanded the morning since your days began, and caused the dawn to know its place, so that it might take hold of the skirts of the earth, and the wicked be shaken out of it? It is changed like clay under the seal, and it is dyed like a garment. Light is withheld from the wicked, and their uplifted arm is broken. ‘Have you entered into the springs of the sea, or walked in the recesses of the deep? Have the gates of death been revealed to you, or have you seen the gates of deep darkness? Have you comprehended the expanse of the earth? Declare, if you know all this.

PSALM: PSALM 104:1-9, 24-26

1. Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, you are very great.
You are clothed with honour and majesty,
2. wrapped in light as with a garment. You stretch out the heavens like a tent,
3. you set the beams of your chambers on the waters, you make the clouds your chariot, you ride on the wings of the wind,
4. you make the winds your messengers, fire and flame your ministers.
5. You set the earth on its foundations, so that it shall never be shaken.
6. You cover it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.

7. At your rebuke they flee; at the sound of your thunder they take to flight.

8. They rose up to the mountains, ran down to the valleys to the place that you appointed for them.

9. You set a boundary that they may not pass, so that they might not again cover the earth.

24. O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

25. Yonder is the sea, great and wide, creeping things innumerable are there, living things both small and great.

26. There go the ships, and Leviathan that you formed to sport in it.

SECOND READING: EPHESIANS 1:3-10

Susan Rowe Donovan Sparks

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

GOSPEL: Luke 5:1-11

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
